

The 2011
PRAIRIE GARDEN

Healthy Gardening

Western Canada's Only Gardening Annual

An inviting walk past the hostas to the echinaceas and lilies
(Frances Wershler)

Creating a Beautiful and Beneficial Garden

See page 1

Echinacea purpurea
(Darlene McPherson)

Bumble bees on
Gaillardia aristata
(Sarah Coulber)

Rainbow carrots
(Lori Ann Regnier)

The Real Dirt on Organic Growing

See page 46 Page 92

First place vegetables
(Valerie Denesiuk)

Eastern bluebird
(Larry Kirtley)

Carnivorous Plants

See page 162

Sarracenia minor
(Darlene Stack)

Sarracenia
'Judith Hindle'
(Darlene Stack)

Cabbage
(Frances Wershler)

Zucchini
(Valerie Denesiuk)

More Than Just Another Pretty Garden

See page 21

Recently emerged monarch butterfly with abandoned chrysalis

(Darlene McPherson)

Tools to assist the gardener who doesn't want to 'over-do-it'

(Darlene McPherson)

Rooftop Gardening

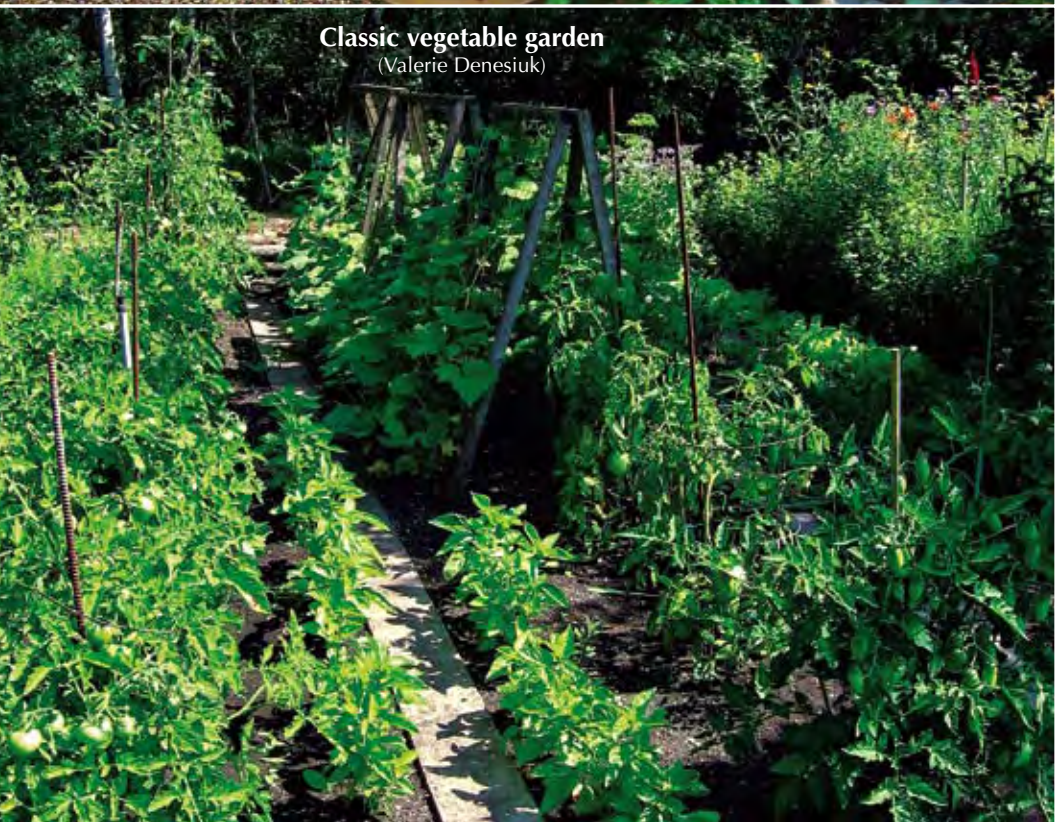

See page 123

(Valerie Denesiuk)

Classic vegetable garden

(Valerie Denesiuk)

Identifying and Managing Cutworms

Page 97

See page 143
(John Gavloski)

Redbacked cutworm larva
(middle) and pupae

Dingy Cutworm Adult On Sunflower

Filipendula rubra - Queen of the Prairies
(Darlene McPherson)

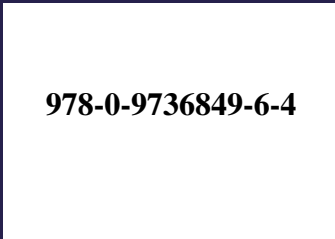

the Friends
OF THE ASSINIBOINE PARK CONSERVATORY

KACKENHOFF
NURSERIES LTD.
"Our Business is Growing"

978-0-9736849-6-4

The LILY NOOK

Lilium Specialists

PRINTED IN CANADA